FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
18 U. S.C. § 1344: Bank Fraud as charged in the single-count Information.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $67,183.66 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

Defendant shall pay restitution to victim(s) as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim(s). The victim list, which shall be forwarded by the probation office to the fiscal section of the clerk's office shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victim(s).

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of the defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $50, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's present economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with convicted codefendant Jessica Weaver for the full amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

USA vs. JOHN WEAVERDocket No.: SACR 12-0161-DOC

All fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that the defendant is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, John Weaver, is hereby committed on the Single-Count Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 37 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02. The defendant shall further comply with General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated therein;
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
3. The defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;

5. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;
6. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug or alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
8. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any account number, driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport, or any other form of identification in any name other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than the defendant's true legal name and identity without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer;
9. The defendant shall submit person and property to search or seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer with or without a warrant and with or without reasonable or probable cause;
10. The defendant shall report to the United States Probation Office within 72 hours of the defendant's release from imprisonment;
11. The defendant shall report in person directly to the Court within 21 days of the defendant's release from imprisonment, at a date and time to be set by the United States Probation Office, and thereafter report in person to the Court no more than eight times during his first year of supervised release; and

12. The defendant shall not possess, have under the defendant's control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapon as defined by federal, state, or local law.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug or alcohol dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the Court.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a medical health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment, specifically including all necessary treatment related to the defendant's diagnosis of cardiomyopathy and congestive heart failure.

Court RECOMMENDS that the defendant participate in the 500-Hour/RDAP Program within the Bureau of Prisons.

The Court recommends that the defendant be housed in the Southern California area due to close family ties.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
